A Delirious Summer (Book #2): A Novel Ray Blackston

Would you travel thousands of miles just to get a date?

Neil Rucker's tempted. His life as a Spanish language teacher in Ecuador affords little opportunity for romance. So when his worst student, stockbroker-turned-missionary Jay Jarvis, negotiates a trade of extra credit for a respite in Greenville, South Carolina, Neil's delirious summer begins.

But the girls of Greenville aren't waiting for dates. They've crafted a plan-a database and an organization-to find Mr. Rights in every denomination and congregation . . . if only Neil and the other available bachelors show up at the same places they do.

As the girls church-hop in search of the perfect man, Neil struggles to keep up and find the perfect girl among the Neapolitan choices: short, demanding redhead Lydia; thrill-seeking and lead-footed blonde Darcy; and the very tardy but dangerous raven-haired Alexis with the pierced eyebrow.

Between the reckless driving, the double-double mochas, and the lessons in crabbing for dinner, Neil will have to figure out who's the girl for him-a process that would render any guy delirious.

Praise for Blackston's first book, Flabbergasted:

"As charming as Bridget Jones's Diary."-Library Journal

"Fun, lighthearted, and thoroughly enjoyable."-CCM magazine

"One book you don't want to miss!"-Crossings Book Club

"Ideal reading for a lazy summer night."-Bookpage
