2015 READERS' FAVORITE AWARD WINNER.

"This is probably the best description of a personal relationship with a higher power that exists anywhere!" -
Melinda Hills

An unusual retelling of the Garden of Eden story, Four in the Garden is a thought-provoking allegory of one's relationship with God. It is a spiritual fantasy that explores a primordial world where God creates only one human, named Cherished. Three Teachers guide Cherished along his erratic journey toward understanding and trusting Creator. All the trials Cherished faces are meant to transform him, but also to prepare him for the greatest crisis of all.

This inspirational book challenges readers to trust in God because trust is the means by which we are transformed. To aid contemplation and spiritual growth, Four in the Garden is divided into short thematic chapters and free discussion questions are available at fourinthegarden.com.

On the book's web site, fourinthegarden.com, download a free transcript of a speech by the author on the topic of trusting in God, the main theme of his book, Four in the Garden.
