Napoleone a Borodinò (Italian Edition) Francesco R. Frieri

La Battaglia di Borodinò, del 1812, ove Napoleone contrappone la sua Grande Armée all'esercito russo guidato da Kutuzov. Battaglia ricostruita dalle principali fonti storiche disponibili oggi, ma riletta nell'evoluzione tattica alla luce della teoria del Caos, per individuare aspetti curiosi e errori che avrebbero condizionato gli eventi successivi. In generale lo scritto propone al lettore una riflessione su come il processo decisionale si evolve in momenti di stress, come la strategia e il punto di vista di chi pensa, i retaggi culturali della propria epoca, possono condurre all'insuccesso. Una lontana analogia storica con la crisi economica attuale, in cui persone e organizzazioni complesse si muovono impaurite.
