What If There Were No Dads?

The very thought is frightening!

Without Dad, ball gloves would stay in drawers and children would have to sleep with their lights on at night. Dads are the family leaders -- the supporters, the teachers, the protectors. It's time to tell dads everywhere how much we love and need them.

This fun yet heartwarming book will delight any dad and let him know how much he is appreciated for all he does. Inside, amusing illustrations bring to life the words of a captivating poem that tells how much Dad does and how we couldn't live without him.

This is a gift book any dad will be proud to keep on his desk or beside his bed, and it's the perfect way to honor the love, devotion, and support dads give us. It confirms what Dad has known all along -- you really can't live without him!
