Proclaim His Holy Name: Uncovering Yehovah's Will for His Name Peter Miller-Russo, Linda Miller-Russo
REVISED and EXPANDED edition

The biggest cover-up of all time occurred centuries ago when the Name of our Creator was changed to "the LORD." Our Father's name is NOT "the LORD."

For far too long the Name of our Creator has been made of "none-effect" by the hiding of His true name through man-made traditions that replace it with terms such as "the LORD," Adonai, or HaShem. The Creator's name is not "the LORD," Adonai, or HaShem.

Do not be deceived: It is not the Father who has hidden His name nor has He forbidden us to speak it, rather it is man (deceived by Satan) who has changed the Father's name into a title and made it of none-effect.

"Proclaim His Holy Name" will lead you through a scriptural exploration of the actual name of our Creator, uncovering His name as it is written in Hebrew and English as well as answering questions such as:

- What is the Creator's will regarding His holy name?
- How should I pronounce His name?
- How can I receive the blessings and promises contained within the holy names of the Father and the Son?
- Will my name be written in the Father's Book of Remembrance?
- Who is behind the biggest cover-up of all time?

In this spirit-filled book you will discover the importance of honoring and praising the Father every day by calling upon His name, the name which He purposely gave to us over 6800 times in the original Hebrew text of the Bible.
