Three Rivers Beckoned: Life & Times with Calgary Mayor Jack Leslie Jean Leslie

Three rivers wind through Jean Leslie's life and memoirs. Married to Jack Leslie, Mayor of Calgary (1965–1969), Jean describes their early lives beside the Elbow in Calgary from the 1920s to the 1940s. She recounts their adventures along the Kootenay River where they built a fishing camp in the 1950s. Then she takes us behind the scenes during Jack's term as alderman and mayor. In 1962, the Bow River, in the heart of Calgary, was threatened with railway tracks along the south bank. Jean tells the gripping tale of how the river bank was saved by Jack and grassroots Calgarians.
