(Study Score). This new follows the Wagner Complete Edition which is based on the autograph score, representing the first critical edition of Lohengrin. Previous editions were based on the 1914 edition of the score which differed from the autograph in many details and was published by Michael Balling as part of the first complete edition which has remained unfinished. The original musical text is now available in a handy format for the first time, and is perfectly suited for study purposes. With German/English preface and Critical Report.
