Why Not Me? Pamalla Stockho

Over 40,000 women die each year from breast cancer, but many more of us live. Millions are touched by loved ones' and friends' cancers. Hope and humor temper the devastating blow of breast cancer for one dedicated nurse practitioner. Secure in the love of family and friends, she weathers the emotional roller coaster that will lead to renewed fulfillment in her clinical practice and will serve as a stepping stone to future promise.
