Dream Psychology: Psychoanalysis for Beginners Sigmund Freud

Perhaps the most famous— or most infamous— neurologist to ever write, Sigmund Freud changed his field forever with the publication of his analyses on human psychology. Best known for his work in psychosexual development, Freud's work on dreams and the unconscious mind wielded influence in everything from the sciences to literary criticism. While his assertions are now debated by scholars, his contributions to the field he devoted his life to cannot be denied. Reading Freud is reading a significant and fascinating facet of psychological history.
