El dolor que nos une (Nuevos Tiempos) (Spanish Edition) David Mark

Hay personas que harían cualquier cosa por los demás. Como Philippa Longman, una abuela de 53 años con una familia que la adora, marido, tres hijos, nietos pequeños, que solo desea llegar a casa después de su trabajo en la tienda en una noche calurosa y asfixiante. Como Roisin McAvoy, una jovencísima madre de corazón de oro, una mujer leal a su marido que protege a sus amigos con uñas y dientes. Como el sargento Aector McAvoy, un hombre obsesionado con proteger a los demás, ya sea a su familia del resto del mundo o a los habitantes de Hull, Inglaterra, de una epidemia de crímenes violentos.

Hay personas que harían cualquier cosa para vengarse. Pero hay rencores que nunca mueren que son más fuertes que la bondad, y pronto estos tres espíritus afables aprenderán la misma lección: a las buenas personas también les suceden cosas malas.

El dolor que nos une es un thriller policiaco, el tercero de la serie del sargento McAvoy escrita por David Mark, que nos demuestra que la gente de buen corazón es casi siempre presa fácil y que el mal es un veneno que disuelve los lazos entre las buenas personas, hasta dejarlos únicamente unidos por el dolor.

«David Mark combina una prosa impecable, un argumento ágil y altas dosis de cinismo en la tercera entrega de la serie que protagoniza el sargento McAvoy».
