As people we have sacred places -- places significant because of our experience there. It is the geography of such places that shape our relationship with God, in much the same way as the geography of the Holy Land shaped Jesus. In This Place by Laurie Brink, O.P., and Marianne Race, C.S.J., offers a picture of the historical world and geography of Jesus that allows readers to enter the mystery of the story, to "re-member" themselves among those early listeners, and to feel the presence of the holy in ancient words spoken long ago, in a real place.
