Chicken Shop (NHB Modern Plays) Anna Jordan

A dark and twisted coming-of-age story by the Bruntwood Prize-winning author of Yen.

Hendrix is growing up. Or at least he's trying to. But he's sick of his mother and her constant preaching on the virtues of an organic lifestyle. And he's sick of her girlfriend, a twentysomething stunner who winds him up relentlessly. But most of all he is sick of the bullies at school who target him viciously, thinking if his mum is gay then he must be too.

In a desperate attempt to prove his masculinity, Hendrix enters a very adult world and gets far more than he bargained for. He meets Luminita – a young girl enslaved into an unbearable life. She finds comfort in Hendrix; a chance to connect, to be seen as a human being. Though from completely different worlds, their secret friendship grows in snatched moments in a sordid room above a Chicken Shop.

Denise Niemi:

As a university student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library or to make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's spirit or real their pastime. They just do what the educator want, like asked to go to the library. They go to there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Chicken Shop (NHB Modern Plays) can make you really feel more interested to read.
