Many can point to thousands of reasons why money is money, however it is made, as far as God and His servants get their own share. But does that glorify the Almighty God or gainsay Him? Should we see receiving from God through the casino lens? Is the quest for hitting holy jackpots Biblical? Is neo-tithing an exercise in fear or faith? Can the church survive without tithes? Is asking to be rich asking to be part of God's agenda for the needy? And what is terrorism telling us today as Christians? Should we be obsessed with hunting for gains and glory or busy winning precious souls? Questions upon questions, one may say, but we either find their answers or allow them to haunt us in this end time. This insightful book will help us make the requisite well-informed and God-glorifying choice today.
